

Northwestern University Prosthetics-Orthotics Center

Lower and Upper Limb Orthotics and Prosthetics For Physicians and Therapists March 27th - 30th, 2018

A combination of didactic lectures and live patient demonstrations taught by orthopedic surgeons, physiatrists, prosthetists, orthotists, and physical therapists will illustrate fundamental principles of prosthetic and orthotic management including:

Pre-Prosthetic Care

Post-Amputation Care

Normal Human Locomotion & Biomechanics

Upper Limb Prosthetic Management

Partial Foot Prosthetic Management

Transtibial Prosthetic Management

Transfemoral Prosthetic Management

Hip Disarticulation & Hemipelvectomy Management

Pedorthic & Orthotic Management of the Foot & Ankle

Ankle Foot Orthoses

Knee Ankle Foot Orthoses

Spinal Pathologies & Orthotic Management

Scoliosis Management

The course will be taught at Northwestern University's Chicago campus located in the heart of Chicago, just a short walk away from world class shopping, dining, & hotel accommodations.

For further information, please visit our website at:

www.nupoc.northwestern.edu/education/continuing-ed/P-O_MDs.html